LUEBECK, LAGERHÄUSER A.D. TRAVE

LL 4632

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Luebeck is a busy commercial port and was formerly head of the Hanseatic League. The picture represents the old warehouses on the river Trave, erected in 1694. The town contains many ancient houses, churches fortified gateways and quaint business premises, mementoes of its mediaeval greatness

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)
